I'm flesh and blood baby I'm skin and bone
Every inch of me a man
I'm meek and mild baby from the head to toe
And I've tried to be the best I can

But I've been mad baby I've been confused
I know that's hard to understand
But I've got dreams baby and they need you
You've got the future in your hands

Baby pain, baby pain
Baby pain, baby pain

I was alone baby love pulled me through
Out of the darkness came a sign
Now that was you baby you pulled me through
You came to me and saved my life

My bleeding heart baby still beats for you
Still beating in the air inside
Still beating strong baby still beating true
Still beats to keep our dreams alive

Baby pain, baby pain
(Still beating strong enough for two)
Baby pain, baby pain
(Still beating here for me and you)

I've got the blues baby you got 'em too
I know there's something we can try
Now there's a cure baby it's good for two
No sense in wasting no more time

Give me your hand baby I'll give you mine
It's time to leave the past behind
Now we can try baby see what we find
Then make it anything we like

Baby pain, baby pain
Baby pain, baby pain

Give me your hand baby

(Baby pain)
Give me your hand
(Baby pain)
Give me your hand baby
(Baby pain)
Give me your hand
(Baby pain)
