Everyone, every singer
Every song, everyone
Every lover whose lovers gone
It's a soothing delight
And it's moving my life
Everyone
Every singer and every song
Everyone, every faker and every fun
Everyone, every lover whose love has gone
It's a cold, cold, ya, beautiful, everybody
Knows that life can be wonderful
It's a soothing delight
And it's moving my life
It's a soothing delight
And it's moving my life
It's a soothing delight
And it's moving my life
Everyone, every singer, and every saint
Everything, every picture and lick of paints
Everyday, every sunrise and starry night
It's a cold, cold, ya, beautiful,
Everybody knows that life
Can be beautiful
It's a soothing delight
And it's moving my life
It's a soothing delight
And it's moving my life
It's a soothing delight
And it's moving my life
It's a soothing delight
And it's moving my life.
It's a soothing delight
And it's moving my life.
