

Flunk "Ride"

I went to a lonely bar and the word was out, so
You could steal my love I guess I wouldn't mind at all
Looking at the cars and looking at the shadows fall
I would let it be, I guess I wouldn't mind at all

I went into the car heading for a place I know, to stay
You could steal my love, I guess I wouldn't mind at all
Driving through the night, driving to the place I love
I could let it be, I could let it all go

Oh oh wanna ride with me?
Oh oh wanna ride with wanna ride with me?
