You know that our love affair is a bit like the rainbow Unpredictable, still it's one of nature's greatest shows Soon come fall, it's the best excuse for doing nothing at all
There's people and there's sunshine, it's a perfect day
for wasting time

Looking at the sky
Hearing sound of guitars
I'm looking at the sky
Hearing sound of guitars

You should know the beauty of life, is the beauty of falling in love
Still sometimes the future seems too hard to swallow
You know there's an ocean of time, starting tomorrow
There's people and there's sunshine, it's a perfect day
for wasting time

Looking at the sky
Hearing sound of guitars
I'm looking at the sky
Hearing sound of guitars
