Don't take a trip
To anywhere alone
You jumped on a ship,
Which is almost drowned
You said you were faking
Then do I love your clone?
He has a quick temper
Once fired...
He cannot control
He cannot control

I know that you're lying to me
That's why we collide
I know that you're calling
Every night in secret
I pretend to be a sleeping child
Try to shut my ears to you
He loves a fresh comfort
It's not me
'Cos I'm too dry to give
I'm too dry to give

Sing or just stay
If you cannot sleep
Give me a kiss
To run away from nightmares
I don't like to make sure
If you're next to me
When I wake up with fears
I rather stay in my dream
That's better than losing myself
You'll find me disappeared
You'll find me disappeared

Sleeping child is gone
Sleeping child is gone
