Without a sound
You scream so loud
Making promises you'll never keep
Without the doubt
You'd blow your mind out
If i poured you six bullets
So don't make the same mistake
My old man said
Once before i was like you
So how do you know who i am

Anymore my friend
Do you remember
When we used to think
We could take on the world
If they just gave us a chance
So don't make the same mistake
My old man said
Once before i was like you
So how do you know who i am?
