Run away
It's the fashion of today
Saying you will, maybe you won't
Please make up your mind
The pleasure of guilt never felt so wrong
I promise - no more promises
So keep this secret to yourself
Cause it's for you and no one else

So underground
Yeah, I won't let it get me down

Let it all go
My favourite to lose by gain
You're pulling me in
And I hope you're worth it
A cellular love, digital sin
A fiberoptic romance
So keep this secret to yourself
Cause it's for you and no one else

So underground
Yeah, I won't let it get me down
