Heard you cryin from the room next door
It's always, so hard to let things go
It's funny how the sound of tears can break
So softly, against this reality

Does anybody here ever breath anymore
Has anybody here ever known not to destroy
Themselves

'cause I'm falling, deeper, in your ocean

Does anybody here ever know just what's inside of me
'cause it will always be

Heard you laughin from the room next door
It's always, so hard to let me knowâ€¦let me know

It's funny how the thought's that make you hurt
Evolve, into a sea that burns

Does anybody here ever breath anymore
Has anybody here ever known not to destroy
themselves

'cause I'm falling, deeper, in your ocean
Does anybody here ever known just what's inside of me

'cause it will always be
Just a lonely sea

Falling deeper in your ocean
Falling deeper away

Falling deeper in your oceanâ€¦awayâ€¦away.
