This is bliss
Time just slipped again
Memories are bent all the days just turn into one Drifting miles away
Just like yesterday someone's getting tired o being used
Try to make some sense of a life in hell

Tried of pulling wed's life won't grow been a long time since we touched what's true

'cause you can't go back on a deal with the devil
Everything is pulling just a little too hard Tired of the fighting tired of the misery gotta get it on

Head kicked down below my mind is blank and I'm ready for bliss

Head kicked down below my mind is blank and I'm
ready for bliss

Tracks are set ahead
Seem to be mislead years of salting wounds left wide open Gotta get away from myself sometimes
'cause you can't go back on a deal with the devil
Everything is pulling just a little too hard
Tired of the fighting tired of the misery gotta get it on Try to make some more sense of it all Time just slipped away again memories are bent all the day's turn into one.
