It gets longer in between each time you call
I'd be safe in sayin' you no longer care at all We're never seem together like we used to be
Tell me darling whatever happened to me
I once played a big part in your world think back and I know you'll agree
You still play a big part in my world but whatever happened to me
I can't keep myself from asking what went wrong
I've made up my own excuses for so long
Please forgive me if I'm just too blind to see
And tell me darling whatever happened to me
Please forgive me...
