"Time To Go"

Hello! seems I forgot your name again. Do you still wanna be my friend? Got an extra hand to lend. I always seem to break when I try to bend. Everywhere I go the wind always blows in my face. When I try to wait you end up running late, and it's time to go. Today funny feeling made me pray. What I would find and lose would be the same. You like green and I like gray. I will remember but I'll probably forget this day. It's simplistic, I'm eccentric, you like English I like metric!
systems collide.. then our pieces start to scatter to the opposite ends of the room, and hide. Wait a minute I've got something to say. You like to lie I love to lay. So close the door as you walk away. But try to have a nice day.
