Cry those tears, let them flow
So full of regret
It's hard oh I know
But I can't do this
Take your time, take it slow
Girl don't tell me
My heart it broke
Before you even spoke

Tonight it feels alright
To know I'm letting go

Cause I did try to turn this back around
And I can't lie
You were in my heart
(Kenny: you said you'd turn this back around
But it's not easy
To put us back on solid ground)

She's everything you ever wanted
Just don't forget
She breaks boys hearts
And will do it again
Take your time, take it slow
Just don't rush it
Your heart is broke
And you don't even know

Tonight it feels alright
To know I'm letting go

Cause I did try to turn this back around
And I can't lie
You were in my heart
(Kenny: you said you'd turn this back around
But it's not easy
To put us back on solid ground)

(Wha oh Wha oh... Yeah Yeah...)
