When I said good morning, I was lying
I was truly thinking of, how I might quit waking up
He pointed out how selfish, It would be to kill myself

So I keep waking up...

It feels so much like falling
Dying while I wait to die
The fear of something or nothing,
Lonely, empty, lie

I don't want to be a liar,
I don't want to be selfish anymore
I want so much to change,
Learning your love everyday...
There's still so much to know

You grip my wrists, I let go

It feels so much like falling
Seperated from the fear
Aware of a destination far away from here

It feels so much like falling
Seperated from the fear

Far away from here...
