Well I know I'm in too deep
To solve this by myself
And the friends I chose to keep
Will they help me now

Or is this where I sink
Down a hole in side my room
The quicksand is so thick, here

I know what I said but I gotta go
I don't want to stay here and be alone
I know, I know I'll never get away
But I can't face what's become of me

And you've worried over me
For far too long I know
How I wish that I could see
What's in front of me

I know what I said but I gotta go
I don't want to stay here and be alone
I know, I know I'll never get away
But I can't face what's become of me

Here we are, here we are
I never thought it'd come to this
Here I am, staring down
My whole life

I know what I said but I gotta go
I don't want to stay here and be alone
I know, I know I'll never get away
But I can't face what's become of me

Don't know what's become of me
Can't face what's become of me
Don't know what's become of me
