You can only move as fast as those in front of you
And if you assume just like them, what good will it do?
So find out for yourself, so your ignorance will stop bleeding through

You can breathe, ooh, today
So many, lies swarming, around you, you're suffocating
The empty shape in you
Steals your breath you're suffocating

Logic forces me to believe in this and I have learned to see
And I can only say what I see and heard and only you can choose
And every choice you make will effect you, suit your own self

You can breathe, ooh, today
So many, lies swirling, around you, you're suffocating
The empty shape in you
Steals your breath you're suffocating

So many, lies swarming, around you, you're
suffocating
The empty shape in you

Steals your breath you're suffocating

Big enough to fill the void that's inside of you It's just a breath away

So many, lies swarming, around you, you're
suffocating
The empty shape in you
Steals your breath you're suffocating

So many, lies swarming, around you, you're
suffocating
The empty shape in you
Steals your breath

So many, lies swarming, around You, you're
suffocating
The empty shape in you
Breathes today
