Backing vocals: Dawn McCarthy

I slept sweetly unpretending
That the night was always ending
She breathes lightly right next to me
And I dreamed of her inside of me

And in my dream she sang so sweetly
A melody I hope to sing
So enslaved by her sweet wonder
It cut my legs and ?? hunger

She sang my name and so engulfed
And I cried and felt my legs fail
In her arms I trembled electric
And she led me and she held me

Then waking she was older still
And holds my love against it's will
In spell cast with her palms extended
Cursed love is never ended

Cursed eyes are never closing
Cursed arms are never closing
Cursed children never rising
Cursed me never despising

Oh I am loving always holding Epic song it tells of how
Of she and I are living now

[Dawn: cursed love (repeat)]
