Your never gonna find out
What you don't know
But you don't know
That you already know(you know)
All these unfamiliar places
All these unfamiliar faces

What if That new kid in school
Who you thought was really cool
Who you thought was really hot
Turned out to be
Nothing but a fake
Don't find out for yourself
Ask anybody else
What if you cant believe a thing he says

2x
Did it ever occur to you
You cant always trust what you hear
You know All these unfamiliar places
All these unfamiliar faces

What if You're the new kid in town
Appearances are everything
You change yourself
Just to fool everyone around you
Not letting them get to know the real you
Hoping that they don't see right through
When its better just to be yourself
Ask anybody else
There gonna say the same thing

Your never gonna find out
What you don't know
But you don't know
That you already know(you know)
All these unfamiliar places
All these unfamiliar faces

2x
Did it ever occur to you
You cant always trust what you hear

You know All these unfamiliar places
All these unfamiliar faces
