Come right this way, ride this way.
Follow, I promise you'll be okay.
Come this way.

Be that way. Be that way.
Want you, I need you to be okay.
But do they know?

No, I'm farther down!
Oh you're farther down!
No, I'm trapped.
Oh, you're trapped.

With every time I see you, I want to sail away.
With every time I see you, I want to sail away.

Through the night.
Black sounds great.
I know it'll be okay.
Just come this way.

Your feet on the dash.
Brake; we crash.
See you go flying out into the night.
Forever is past.

Do they bother down?
Oh, do they bother now?
Ooh you're trapped!
Oh, you're trapped.

With everytime I see you, I want to sail away.
With everytime I see you, I want to sail away.
The lights won't bridge the gap through their holiday.
With everytime I see you, I want to sail away.
Just sail away.

Everytime... now
Everytime... now
Anytime... anytime
Everytime... now

With every time I see you, I want to sail away
With every time I see you, I want to sail away
The light won't bridge the gap through their holiday
With every time I see you, I want to sail away
Just sail away
