4:45

What have I done?
You were such a friend
I tore this bond apart
I need you back
I've broken the bond that made us strong
I took a knife, and cut you from my life
Regret, remorse, I want to erase
A plea for your friendship, spoken to your face
Wait, come back to me
Wait, come back to my life
Wait. Accept my apology
Wait, receive my forgiveness
Help me relieve, the tension in our lives
Try to forget the evil in the past
Mend these broken bonds, mend these broken bonds
I've lied to your face, stabbed you in the back
I'm helpless without your presence
Wait, come back to my life
Come back to my life
I need you back, I need you back
Back in my life
