"Falling Down"

Excel where I left off.
To go where I have gone.
Defeated my failures.
Still to stand as one.
Why must I contribute to hate?
The tears burning in my eyes.
See the confusion all around me.
This one's told me so many lies.

The walk is easy.
But we make it hard.
God give me the strength 'cause I've fallen down,
down so far.

Why must I contribute to hate?
The tears burning in my eyes.
I see so much confusion all around me.
Cause I've been told so many lies.

A new life now I began.
Once lost but now I'm found.
Familiar in this same song.
No more chains that I've been bound.
Saying the same old thing.
Yeah I'll continue on.
Take a look all around you.
For you know the battle has been won
