Say you're a friend, talk is cheap.
It's not the promises we make, it's the ones that we keep.
And I will live in darkness no - only in the light.
We'll work together not in spite.

You say you're a friend don't walk in front of me.
Just walk beside me.

Never use a fist only an open hand.
I never intend to hurt only to understand.
Look into my eyes, cause there's not a blank stare.
It's obvious if you really care.

If i'm confused and don't know what to do an open mind seeing helps me through.
Learn from my mistakes and I will learn from yours.
Together we'll defeat these pressures.

Together we stand no hatred at all.
That's weakness man it will make us fall.
Bonded by Christ is how we live.
Never to take only to give.
