M&M

Now I never knew life would get this hectic I find myself caught up more than I expected but I still take time out to make my rounds and kick it with the homeys to show I'm still down cuz I never forget where I been and what we went through to go to this point of this game that we're into just cuz I'm in the spotlight don't mean I've changed I'm still down to kick it doin everyday thangs hangin wit the homeys kickin back playin bones rollin up a fat sack to keep us in the zone fit to get my drink on fool and reminisce about the good and bad times we seen ever since so I'm stayin true to my crew and myself got the homeys back anytime they need some help always lookin out for my peeps Glaze and Dubb and I ain't trippin I'm just showin homey love (Chorus)

Some things never change
aint it strange, how it's the same old thang
aint it strange, how things just remain the same Trippin on a memory, do you remember thee Filipino G from the LBC as I, continue on a mission trying to make ends meet kickin trump tight rhymes over bomb ass beats wait up, I been missin but fool I ain't trippin when you see me on the streets you know I'm down for the dippin slippin, hell nah cuz if you knew what I knew then you'd probably stay true like I do, believe that I can't fade it when these hoes wanna jock and actin funny cuz I'm rollin wit the G in my pocket, drop it

cuz it's all about the homeys that was down from day one tryin to real knowin where ya came from so chill as I'm goin for mines while I break it down to you straight line for line so don't try to re-arrange me because you know some things never change G (Chorus)

aint it strange, how things just remain the same T-Dubb-
Now some things change but I keep it in focus I bring it to you real so they label me the Locc I hope this, brings you to a better understanding how it came to see as we represent the LB cuz everyday life, well it's a struggle for me I gots to handle my business and stay down with the homeys
when you're in the rap game and when you can't kick it, the homeys think you changed now knowin that I'm only tryin to make a grip so that I can have thangs, so don't even trip don't ya know you been down so you considered my Locc
we goin still kick back and blaze up the smoke and take a G ride when it's time to put it work and grab a few brews and lay low wit the skirts cuz nevertheless I remain the same so I'm a keep it real and stay true to the game (Chorus)
aint it strange, how it's the same old thang
