And I called you back to a place beside me
And I called you back to a place beside me

Love found us easily
And if that's all we have you will find we need nothing more

And I called you back to a place beside me
And I called you back to a place beside me

And every time we kiss
We find ourselves in love again

And the older that we get
We know that nothing else for us is possible
And I called you back to a place beside me
And I called you back to a place beside me

Mm, when I was quiet
Well, I heard your voice in everything

And I called you back to a place beside me
And I called you back to a place beside me
And I called you back to a place beside me
