i got a problem
its runnin round in my head there a solution its lying inside your bed a revolution has got to come from within do unto others-then get out of the area new resolutions are made to be broken victor or victim you know we are one and the same goddess or godless tell me what is the difference?

everybody claps their hands and breaks their fingers and when it gets infected - the odor lingers the monkey never dies, just waits in the corner lookin for openings

i stop at nothing to hunt down my prey i turn the clock back an hour each and every day file under futile you never cease to amaze pull over, buddy! youll pay the piper one day lets do damnation and see if i care victim or victor
we are one and the same

yeah yeah yeah well im pleased to meet you you cant trust anyone these days an ivory tower is a dirty domain on your knees and against the wall for me to rise then you must fall when crime is money and money is crime you gotta penetrate any opening you can find the right to die and the right to choose for me to win then you must lose but when you miss that sweet caress dial 1-900-FOETUS your punch is spiked the punch is dosed well im-a judge and im-a jury and this case is closed.... the gun is loaded and so is the sherriff bases are loaded - pipes are frozen a filthy habit made to be broken but theres so much at stake

its running round in my head
