Form, the wordless truth that burns so long, so long
It runs me through
Come in blur and light that turns so wide, so wide
I'm purified

The blood, my love, my soul mixed in with you
The life, I now live you, new wine
The meld, the mix, the blue shifting power
The word to the letter, I breathe you in

Shape this dark divine
From sleep so long, so long to mystify
Come in slur and slide and dim so bright, so bright
You are glorified

The blood, my love, my soul mixed in with you
The life, I now live you, new wine
The meld, the mix, the blue shifting power
The word to the letter, I breathe you in

The blood, my love, my soul mixed in with you
The life, I now live you, new wine
The meld, the mix, the blue shifting power
The word to the letter, I breathe you in

Breathe you, breathe you, breathe you
Breathe you, breathe you
Breathe you, breathe you
