I need love, I search it everyplace I go
An' lately, I been in a zone it's got a will of its own Right now, I'm here to discuss just what you think about us
I need love, I need love

An' I'm checkin' everything I see You know at times I wanna take on three that's just the way I could be
But I let you know about that just so you know where I'm at
I need love, I need love

It's always been this way and ain't' nothin' gonna change it
An' ain't nothing you can try, oh
I need love, I need love

An' I'm takin' every chance I can, baby, you could make my day
There's just one thing I should say when it's all said and done
You know, I just got to run, just got to run
I need love, I need love , I need love, I need love
I need love, I need love, I need love baby

I need love, I need love, I need love, I need love
I need love, I need love, I need love, I need love
I need love, I need love, I need love, I need love
