Last night I thought I found you
I saw it in a dream
I was tangled in the rushes, baby
You were caught up in the stream

The more I tried to reach you
The more you slipped away
And when I woke up in the darkness
I was calling out your name

You and I we dance around it
Why is the truth so hard to say?
We long for true love, well
We've found it, it's just one belief away

There's a shadow in the garden
And it's coiled around our hearts
Won't you help me to believe you, baby
Or won't you show me where to start

The more I try to reach you
The more you slip away
I wanna wake up in the darkness
And hear you calling out my name

You and I we dance around it
Why is the truth so hard to say?
We long for true love, well
We've found it, it's just one belief away
One belief away, one belief away

You and I we dance around it
Why is the truth so hard to say?
We long for true love, well
We've found it, it's just one belief away

You and I we dance around it
But why is the truth that you say is so hard to say?
We long for true love, well
We've found it, it's just one belief away
Just one belief away, just one belief away
One belief away, one belief away

One belief away
