Take My Love with You
Daylight, I think about you and wonder where you are
At night I'm wishing, looking at the stars,
But I don't worry about you, I know that soon
you'll be home.
But while you're gone
Take my love with you.
Let it be the light that sees you through,
Chase away your blues.
Where you go and what you do,
Take my love with you.
I'll be your talisman. I'll be your lucky charm.
Put it in your pocket. Put it in your heart.
That in your weakness, baby, just let it help you along.
And make you strong
Take my love with you.
Let it be the light that sees you through,
Chase away your blues.
Where you go and what you do.
Take my love with you.
Take my love with you.
Take my love with you.
And if the world around you begins to crumble and fall,
It wouldn't matter at all
Take my love with you.
Let it be the light that sees you through,
Chase away your blues.
Where you go and what you do
Take my love with you.
Let it be the light that sees you through,
Chase away your blues.
Where you go and what you do,
Take my love with you.
Take my love with you.
Take my love with you.
Take my love with you.
