Skin and bone
Tremble on the throne
Something unexpected couldn't hurt
Behind my eyes scenes I can't describe
Intimidated, fascinated, stealing glances

Flesh and wire
Knotted with desire
Chewing on my lip to hide the truth
Picture this, everything I miss
Circle back and forth until I'm green all over
Green all over

No fair, music in the air
Under your spell
Fell beneath the carousel
The sound had me spinning all around
Under your wonderful carousel
Merry go down

Skin and bone

Tremble on the throne
Something unexpected but deserved
Picture this, everything I miss
Heaven's daughter underwater conversations

Flesh and wire, knotted desire
Circle back and forth until I'm green all over
Green all over

No fair, music in the air
Under your spell
Fell beneath the carousel
The sound had me spinning all around
Under your wonderful carousel
Merry go down

Under your wonderful carousel
Merry go down
