You gave me something I need to leave alone
You gave me all I could want to turn my heart to stone

(Ooh)
I don't want to be someone you love
(Ooh)
I don't want to be someone you love

I save you all I could find to find myself alone Could it be, you never believed, you never listened to me
You never told me the truth

(Ooh)
I don't want to be someone you love
(Ooh)
I'd be happy without you, dropping doubts from the clouds up above

[Incomprehensible]

(Ooh)
I don't want to be someone you love
(Ooh)
I'd be happy without you, dropping doubts from the clouds up above

(Ooh)
I don't want to be someone you love
(Ooh)
I'd be happy without you, dropping doubts from the clouds up above

(Ooh)
I don't want to be someone you love
(Ooh)
I'd be happy without you, dropping doubts from the clouds up above
