

Folkearth "On Wings Divine"

Visit "On Wings Divine" on MotoLyrics.com

The skies burst and lo!
I Perseus, hasten forth
On wings divine from above
In answer to her pleading cries!
The skies sing and lo!
I Perseus, hasten forth
On wings divine from above
To vanquish horror from her eyes!
Sword and shield
(Clash with kraken teeth)
The waves are whips

Their spray a deadly sting... like Hermes on the wing
Swift and deadly is my blade
To claim a hero's victory
And my Andromeda set free!
Such pale beauty in despair
Eyes wild, framed in raven hair
Envied by the goddess of love
Andromeda lies chained to the crag
