What a beautiful sight of marching armed forces madly
What makes me cry easily is the cruelty of going to their death
Sorrow lie deeply and deeply
Beside a dancing clown trying to please the world,
Sorrow lie deeply again

The all of the beginning is the march of time
It won't stop
It creates all, it extinguishes all
It is the everlasting step

Chorus:
The snow spirits resist against the sun
But it only ineffectual, they melt, trampled,
Turned to things what hard to see
So is it true when spring come, hope comes together?
This is my anger, growing and disappearing
It disappearing by warm breeze

I stood against time and created infinite world
Keep away from here
I'm the only person who control the world freely
Even decade, a hundred years
Nobody touch it
I'm the only person who affects time

Spreads infinitely, goes to pieces infinitely
Requiem which doesn't end keeps going uncannily

Beasts nest on the ground
And they are still living in dead fantasy
