A long night
Cutting through the desert heart
The sun was rising
The day was rising
The day was standing on it's feet
I saw a long shadow snakin' down
The dusty road side
To where you were standing
Waiting for the big ride
A vision in back no holding back
I pulled in along side
Drove till night falling light
The time has come to pay the price
Your driving me a wild
Driving me a wild
You turn me upside down
Turn me around
You make feel so good
Your driving me a wild

Everyone loves a mistery
Everyone loves to dream
A real cliffhanger
A real good thriller
But how about love for real

There's a God in the sky
Cause we made it all night
The warm river flowing inside
But the river run dry s day went by
He couldn't wait to say goodbye

Your driving me a wild
Driving me a wild
You turn me upside down
Turn me around
You make feel so good
Your driving me a wild

Everyone loves a mystery

You driving me a wild

Driving me a wild
