Goodbye to the island
Hello to the rain
It's gone like a dream in the night
And it won't be back again

Goodbye to the island
Where our bodies touched
Goodbye to a little bit of heaven
And I miss you so much

Why love did you treat me this way?
Why love did you treat me this way?
Why love did you treat me this way?
Why love did you treat me this way?

A bed, it is an island
A world apart
Soft words in the middle of the night
Straight from the heart

Two heads on a pillow
So warm, so close
Goodbye to the island
Where it, where it mattered the most

Why love did you treat me this way?
Why love did you treat me this way?
Why love did you treat me this way?
Why love did you treat me this way?

Goodbye to the island
Hello to the rain
It's gone like a dream in the night
And it won't be back again

Why love did you treat me this way?
Why love did you treat me this way?
Why love did you treat me this way?
Why love did you treat me this way?

Why love did you treat me this way?
Why love did you treat me this way?

Why love did you treat me this way?
Why love did you treat me this way?
