(Rick Wakeman)

Producer for Bonnie: Rick Wakeman

Recorded in 1998 (released 1999) for Rick Wakeman's album 'Return to the Centre of the Earth' - a follow-up to his 1979 album 'Journey to the Centre of the Earth'.

Lyrics taken from the UK album sleeve.

Chorus 1:

Does anyone know my name?
Is there anybody there?
You're as near me as you can ever be
Watching me
Watching me

Tag1:

Does anyone love me?
Does anyone need me?
Nobody knows my name
Takes my blame
Feels my pain

Chorus 2:

Does anyone care for me?
I just need a life to share
All my life I've searched
For someone just like you
Is there anybody there?
Is anyone there?
Anyone there?

Verse 1:

I don't know why you make me wanna stay
'Cos there's no-one left to love
I'm losing my life for a reason
I'm losing my life 'cos of you

Tag 2:

Is anybody really there?

Bridge:

No-one waits for no-one
No-one cares at all

Nowhere left to hang around
No-one left to call

Patience is my virtue
By virtue of my shame
Broken pieces everywhere
Everything's a game
Where have all the people gone
That once were in my life
Why has everybody gone away?

Chorus 3:
Does anyone know my name?
Or does anybody care?
There's a reason
Why I know I have to stay
So is anybody there?

I'm losing my life for a reason
I'm losing my life 'cos of you
I want to know you're out there just for me

Chorus 4:
I'm tired of waiting here for you
Now I've made up my mind
You're no good
I don't need you
I don't care anymore when you cry

I'm sending my love far away
With a piece of my heart
And a tear for each day
That I cried
So there must be a reason for living
There must be a reason for loving

It's all right
It's all right

Tag 4:
Will anyone really care
If I just walk away
With a tear in each eye
And a reason not to stay?

Does anyone really know me?
Does anyone really care?
Is there anybody there?
