I'm a woman
And here we are
Locked together
Living on this lonely star
But we can stay here
Like the mountains do
Like the leaves we tumble
But baby before we do
Before we do

Let the show begin
Let the orchestra play
Let the dancers in
And we'll dance the night away
Let the show begin
Get me lost in your kiss
If we don't remember anything
We'll sure remember this
If we don't remember anything
We'll sure remember this

Who am i, love
Who are you
Locked together
Wondering where we're going to
An old man told me
How his life just flew
And the years went quickly
But baby before they do
Before they do

Let the show begin
Let the carnival start
Let the dancers in
Take your partners to your hearts
Let the show begin
Let the orchestra play
If we don't remember anything

We won't forget today
If we don't remember anything
We won't forget today

Ad libs...

Let the show begin
Get me lost in your kiss
If we don't remember anything
We'll sure remember this
If we don't remember anything
We'll sure remember this
