It's gonna take time for us to trust again
I can see it in your eyes
All these walls you've built around yourself
To keep the hurt away
Keep the tenderness inside

We've gotta find doors
Gotta find an open road to your heart
Come on baby

You gotta be strong
Life is what you make it
I'm hanging on
Love's right here, just take it

Whatever is wrong
It won't take it long to make it right
We can make it right tonight

We've gotta find words to heal these differences
Gotta find some peace of mind
There'll come a day you'll realize that after all, we're only human
No one's perfect all the time

But you've gotta hold on
You've gotta hold on tight as hell to your dream
It's never too late, baby

But you gotta be strong
Life is what you make it
I'm hanging on
Love's right here, just take it

Whatever is wrong
It won't take it long to make it right
We can make it right tonight

Twenty twenty vision
Looking back at our mistakes
But when it comes to now you can't see straight

Make this decision
Heaven's here for us to take, baby
And heaven won't wait, no
Heaven won't wait

But you gotta be strong
Life is what you make it
I'm hanging on
Love's right here, just take it

Whatever is wrong
It won't take it long to make it right
We can make it right tonight

You gotta be strong
I'm hanging on

Whatever is wrong
It won't take it long to make it right

Hanging on

Make it right tonight
Make it right tonight
