I guess it's time I finally learn to breathe again
I guess that I should try my best and smile again
I was broken down in so many pieces
But now

I'm at peace with myself
I'm at peace with myself

I've been caught in the rain
One too many times
I've been lost with the pain that I had to hide
I was feeling but I couldn't move, forced like a statue
Running from the truth that I can't feel alone
Now I won't live without my Sunshine

I didn't recognize the face in front of me
The reflection of somebody I didn't want to be
I guess I forgot how good it felt to just be happy
And now there's no turning back

I've been caught in the rain
One too many times
I've been lost with the pain that I had to hide
I was feeling but I couldn't move, forced like a statue
Running from the truth that I can't feel alone
Now I won't live without my Sunshine

I remember the storm but I'll erase all the grey skies
No more grey skies, no
Stop ignoring the rainbows
And just leave me life in the sunshine
Cause we all need sunshine yeah

I've been caught in the rain
One too many times
I've been lost with the pain that I had to hide
I was feeling but I couldn't move, forced like a statue
Running from the truth that I can't feel alone
Now I won't live without my Sunshine

(I've been caught in the rain) Sunshine

(I've been lost with the pain) My Sunshine
(I've been caught in the rain) Sunshine
