I remember times like this
Memories you can't dismiss of Paradise
Holding you inside my heart
Looking for a way to start our love again

Every night and every day
We can find a better way to live all our lives
We can be as one again
Finally find a way to say that we know the truth

Til the end of time we love
Reaching for the higher ground
Til the end of time we live
Giving all we have to give

Ooh, children of another time
Lay it all upon the line to say I love you

Every night and every day
We can find a better way to say I love you
Ooh, I love you

Oh, til the end of time we love
Reaching for the higher ground
Til the end of time we live
Giving all we've got to give
Giving all we have to give
Giving all we have to give

Til the end of time we love
Every night and every day
Reaching for the higher ground
Reaching for the higher ground
