You take me all the way
Then you let me go, me go
You lock me far away,
A thousand days or more, or more
You tried to take my soul
I would not let it go, it go
You tried to keep me whole,
But now it's time to go

I'll bend until you break x3

And then I'll bend some more,
I'll bend until you break x3
In Alcatraz, Alcatraz

Keep me for yourself, don't want nobody else
To feel the way i do, i do
You tried to take my soul
I would not let it go
