I'm everything you didn't know
Every place you couldn't go
The silver lining in your sky
The bitter sweetness in your eye
And you can't find
What you thought you had and lost it all
And you can't find...

You love you love you love
Everything about me
You love you love you love
The silhouette
You love you love you love
Everything you can't feel
You love you love you love
The silhouette

Shut me in or shut me out
A broken key, there's no way out
Take my pride or take a fall
Take a bow, don't show it all
And you can't light
A fire when the flames are all burned out
You can't light...

You love you love you love
Everything about me
You love you love you love
The silhouette
You love you love you love
Everything you can't feel
You love you love you love
The silhouette

You love you love you love
Everything about me
You love you love you love
The silhouette
The silhouette
The silhouette
