I am sending you flowers which i picked up on the road
I am sending them to you between my dreams
Because i can't speak with you
And i am sending you kisses in my songs
And during the nights when i sleep
Our hearts are coming together.

You leave again
And if there is a full moon by night
If i feel cold in the morning
Your memory warms me
And your smile when you wake up.
My beautiful baby i swear to you
That every day i see you closer.

And while sleeping between my dreams
I am trying to speak with you and feel you closer to me.
I want to have you in my arms,
To be able to come out and hug you and never again
let you go.

(Chorus)
I want to find you in my dreams
To wake up with your kisses
There is no place too far away for the two of us to meet
Let me give you my hand
To have you by my side
My baby i promise you i will always be your love
Please don't go away.
I am sending you flowers which i picked up on the road
I am sending them to you between my dreams
Because i can't speak with you
And i am preparing ten thousand word
And I go prepareing ten thousand words
To convince you that by my side
Everything will be like we dreamed it.

And while sleeping between my dreams
I am trying to speak with you and feel you closer to me.
I want to have you in my arms
To be able to come out and hug you and never again
let you go.

(Chorus)

I want to find you in my dreams
To wake up with your kisses
There is no place too far away for the two of us to meet
Let me give you my hand
To have you by my side
My baby i promise you i will always be your love
Please don't go away.

I am sending you flowers to decorate your house
May the reddest always be at the entrance
That every morning they will not be short of water
Get up very early to water them
You can name each one of them
So that they will always listen to your call
Beautiful little thing that could be the most prized one
The daisy that is called Mariana
