Have you ever felt the rush in
Oh yeah sometimes we've got to spill a drop of blood
So you can find and take this choices
'Cause life is flying by

Glorious dreams
They will come
Their getting closer
You better wake up
Glorious dreams
They will come
To make a difference
So better lock them

Now you're loaded, you found the target
Two roads in front of you, one shot, you gotta try
Life is short so use it wisely
So keep your brain but use your heart

Glorious dreams
They will come
Their getting closer
You better wake up
Glorious dreams
They will come
To make a difference
So better lock them

Strength and redemption
I found it on sterile eyes
Fear for the big step
It's what always trapped us inside

So now the rush is so intense
Around these walls you feel so tense
You're breathing deep, you're so alive
You clench your fists, the time is right
Just don't hesitate
Remember the limit is the sky
