Have you ever felt the rush in Oh yeah sometimes we've got to spill a drop of

Blood

So you can find and take these choices 'cause life is flying by

Glourious dreams
They will come
They're getting closer
You better wake up
Glourious dreams
They will come
To make a different
So better lock them

Now you're loaded, you found the target Two roads in front of you, one shot, you gotta

Try Life is short so use it wisely So keep you brain but use you're heart

Glourious dreams
They will come
They're getting closer
You better wake up
Glourious dreams
They will come
To make a different
So better lock them

Strengh and redemption
I fout it on sterile eyes
Fear for the big step
It's what always trapped us inside

So now the rush is so intense Around these walls you feel so tense You're breathing deep, you're so alive You clench you fists, the time is right Just don't hesitate

Remember the limit is the sky
