I came to tell you today
That the truth was never said
I felt betrayed and so scared
Turn my back and walked away
You left behind like a lonely child
Now that I'm gone you'll be lost inside
Live my Life

Now take a look at your life,
Please look back don't be afraid
The question always remains
Maybe you're better of dead
And now you cry like a little child
You don't belong, you are lost in time
Live my life

So lost, empty, sad
Your choice, you feel dead...
