Breaking out of nowhere
There's a fading echo that says
"I'm waiting for you again"
Where I'm gonna find you
When I'm gonna see you again
I've been on my own so long
Going out of no land
Wasting all my nights away
I've been in the rain too long
Losing all my seasons
Show them all the reasons to say
To say that you are the one
Always down
Waiting for a miracle
To move into you with my soul (x2)
I'm looking all around
I'm sure that I'll find out
Something good, yeah
Something good
I move from North to South
I'm sure that I'll find out
Something good, yeah
Something good
Always down (always)
Waiting for a miracle
To move into you with my soul (x2)
