Shout it out I say
I have given up what I thought I knew
Shout it out I say
Now I have a voice and a point of view

I'm sick and tired of these lies
But I'm swallowed up in it
If I choose not to resist
I'll be hiding up in it

Now I've got to know my chances
Something's really wrong I'm hopeless
Guess I'm getting over my worst mistake
My minds not focused, I'm out of place

What's so wrong, who's to blame
We live by consequences,
and I am ready to fight
What's so wrong, who's to blame
Conflict of circumstances,
but I won't lose my faith

Waiting to be saved, oh wasted life
With a different name but same old face
Now somewhere in time in a different place
You see me running to win this race

What's so wrong, who's to blame
We live by consequences,
and I am ready to fight
What's so wrong, who's to blame
Conflict of circumstances,
