leading everything along never far from being wrong nevermind these things at all it's nothing

couldn't find a way to you seems that's all I ever do turning up black and blue rewarded

all the static we all left wait until the time has come
leaving all my senses numb is heaven

lifted up the fay to seen anything could never be anything but play to me in order

take it back for them to keep fallen into something deep not that I had made that leap annointed where have all the wishes gone now that all of that is done wish I would've won for once
