Hope can seem so hard to find
When all around is falling
And there's never enough light
To see your way out
But in your darkest times
You find out what you're made of
I swear theres more to you
Than you know

I don't want to be the voice of a generation
I just want to be a voice for you
Alone we may be lost
But together we stand tall

Follow my voice
Let me carry you away
I can see you're broken
But we're all the same (We're all the same)
Follow my voice
Let me carry you away
I can see you're lost and alone
So let this song guide you

Alone we may be lost
But together we stand tall

Scars can be so hard to hide
When all around is flawless
But where we've been
Makes us who we are
But in the darkest times
You find out what you're made of
And i swear there's more to you
Than you know

Alone we may be lost
But together we stand tall

Follow my voice
Let me carry you away
I can see you're broken
But we're all the same

Follow my voice
Let me carry you away
I can see you're lost and alone
So let this song guide you

Alone we may be lost
But together we stand tall

I'll let you know
I was like you too
Now every night I take the stage
I do it for you
So you can let out all the hate
And all the rage inside
Life may never seem right
But we'll always have tonight

Alone we may be lost
Alone we may be lost

Follow my voice
But we're all the same
Follow my voice
Let me carry you away
I can see you're lost and alone

Alone we may be lost
