You'll never change
And you'll never change me
I've waited so long to take you down
Now we're face to face

I never wanted
Anything more than
All of you (All of you)
But I know you all too well

You only wanted to control me
How did I think you were heaven?
When you put me through hell

You are everything I hate
How can you tell?
What's right for someone
If you don't know yourself

I won't let you bury me (Bury me)
'Cause I ever let myself become that weak

The oceans between you
And where heart should be
Is sickening (Sickening)

Just wait for the day
When you wake up
All along
And know you always be

I never wanted
Anything more than
All of you (All of you)
But I know you all too well

You only wanted to control me
How did I think you were heaven?
When you put me through hell

You are a liar and a fake

Nothing you do will make me change
You are a liar and a fake
Nothing about you will ever change

Once a liar, always a fake
Once a liar, always a fucking fake

Just wait for the day
When you wake up
All along
And know you always be

I never wanted
Anything more than
All of you (All of you)
But I know you all too well

You only wanted to control me
How did I think you were heaven?
When you put me through hell

(How did I think you were heaven, heaven, heaven?
When you put me through hell?)

Once a liar, always a fake
Once a liar, always a fake
Once a liar, always a fucking fake
